CLUB BULLETIN

Monday 10 July 2006

Monday 10 July 2006

Arthur Krentz, professor at Luther College, University of Regina, will deliver today at noon "China, a Country of Contrasts". Professor Krentz will give his impressions and observations from a recent trip to China, the people and the country.

On his return, three educators from Beijing visited Regina and gave professor Krentz some interesting views on life in China.

Professor Krentz was born in Edmonton and moved at a young age with his parents to Ontario. He received his university education in Ontario and came to teach at Luther College where he remained until his retirement. Both professor Krentz and his wife Caroline were professors at the University of Regina.

Professor Krentz has also visited Greece a number of times and is an authority on Greek history and culture.

Thursday 6 July

Last week, Morley Evans presented a thought which left the audience dumbfounded. They were invited to examine the evidence at the URL below. You can see it too.
